In this new age there is opening up a most fantastic field of interest, the field of psychic phenomena, psychic abilities and psychic research.

Not many years ago, and still seen in some areas today, witches were being burned at the stake. If you mentioned that you were psychic, you were looked at rather strangely. However, in this time and space, these things are slowly being recognized and are demanding public attention. But what kind of attention is it getting? Accusations of quackery, and fraud more often than not. What type of image are we people working in the field giving it?

On the plus side of the picture tremendous research is being done in this field and papers are being presented that can make a great mark in the history of this and other countries. But, what about the individual, the man on the street, you and I, is there something we may do to contribute to the success of this great undertaking. Absolutely! When we study and listen to those who claim to be "masters" or "teachers" let us listen quietly and try to appraise that which we hear and read. Begin to appraise the motives of those involved. Are the underlying motives mercenary, sensational, educational. What actually do they reveal? What do they want? By using our keen sense of discrimination we should be able to weed out and separate the wheat from the chaff and not take every thing that someone in the psychic field says as gospel!

In this way, if we question, each and everyone that we come in contact with we can as individuals help the research that is being done to make greater strides toward the goal of a recognized field, one that will command the respect of the world. It does not take just the researcher to help in this tremendous task bringing to the public the truth that will be accepted by the everyday man on the street, but it takes the power and concentration of each person who feels that he is "new age" to help in this great field of research into the metaphysical-parapsychological happening.

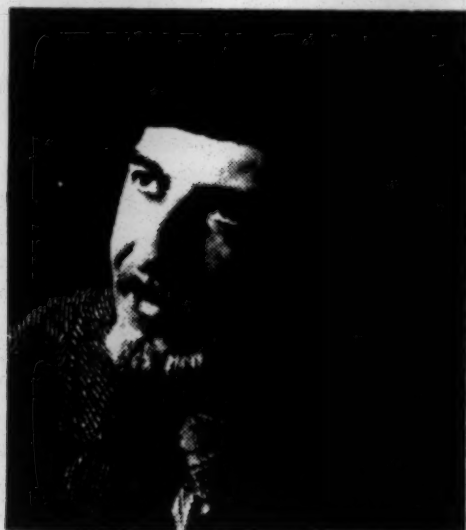

To become a part of the great awakening into the Cosmic Age is a privilege. One that not every one is granted. So add your beauty and love and spiritual help in expanding this great age of awakening.

JACK SCHWARZ

For a long time it has been the opinion of practitioners of behavioral sciences that human behavior is solely a product of genetic pattern, environmental programming and conditioning. Medicine has even gone beyond this belief and often openly has stated that diseases are determined only by the genetic patterns and environmental conditioning; both groups denying the capacity of the individual to influence his own mind-body processes by self-volitional action. Research in psycho-physiological processes thereby using so called bio-feedback techniques have brought forth new ideas contradictory to the theories mentioned. It has become quite clear through the results found in this research that there is an essence of beingness within every individual capable of self-regulation of the neural and chemical processes of formally so called involuntary processes. These processes take place in the subcortical areas of the brain which we normally would have no conscious awareness of, but through self-regulation these processes can become voluntary controlled conscious action.

It is very hard to understand that there still is the popular belief that the mind is only capable of creating diseases and not capable of preventing or curing some diseases, even though medicine has admitted that a tremendously high percentage of diseases are psycho-somatic. What can be done to change these common beliefs have caused thousands of casualties resulting in severe diseases and untimely deaths? One of the first aspects and probably the most important is for the individual to declare and affirm his freedom and capacity to initiate a self-regulatory process. In the latest research we have found that the average man in general has underrated his potential innercapacities, especially the so called involuntary nervous system in regard to psycho-somatic diseases. He has not been willing to acquire the responsibility for self maintenance of his health.

In the aspects of awareness the following programs are essential: 1. To discover these potential innercapacities of self control and maintenance; 2. To show how psychological disturbances can and will become physiological disturbances; 3. To show how bio-feedback—not only by means of instrumentation but by the fullest extent of the meaning, that is feedback from life—can give a greater awareness of the needs to regulate self. therefore, supplying the simple tools of self-diagnostics; 4. To show that soul, mind and body are essentially made up of the same energy, only occurring in qualitative different levels of density and/or subtlety; 5. To give methods of unprogramming or untearing, therefore transcending by non-attachment the genetic patterns and former environmental conditioning by which man allowed himself to be influenced.

CHRISTOPHER HILLS

Christopher Hills, philosopher, yogi, lecturer and researcher was born in England and educated, after winning a singing scholarship at the St. James Choir School. Then after training at Nautical School during World War 2, he served from the age of 20 as navigation officer. After the war he set up an international business organization of 10 companies dealing with produce, essential oils, African and Indian spices. During this period he also founded the first West Indian Art Gallery, to promote native art and it still flourishes as one of the leading galleries there. He took up painting and sculpture and exhibited in several shows. His sculpture, "Spirit of Creation" in the entrance of the Jamaica Hilton for several years, is now in New York. Having spent ten years as a business man he began his sadhana at the age of 30. He has spent the greater part of his life since as a world traveller and co-ordinating link between all those who are working, both as scientists and spiritual leaders, to bring man to a new understanding of his Planetary destiny.

In 1957, after a miraculous healing experience using prayer, he retired from all business activities to devote his resources and time fully to research into the nature of consciousness and he is still writing his Magnum Opus on this subject. Meanwhile he has published papers, books and lectures to the extent of more than 100 items in this field. In the last 17 years, including two as a Sannyassin in India, he has traveled almost continuously throughout the world to bring Man to a new understanding of his destiny. As a student of Tantra and all the disciplines for Self Mastery, he considers himself Master of none but himself, and this is the basis for his teaching. In recent years, using the great art of chanting, he has developed an original school of Troupad style Nada Siddhi (sound gift) and teaches the impregnation of spiritual wordless vibration, in addition to other transcendental modes of knowing. In 1962 he formed the Commission for Research into the Creative Faculties of Man which is run as a fellowship and an integration of creative thinkers and spiritual leaders.

The Centre House community in London was founded by Christopher in 1966, and serves as physical headquarter and a nucleus for similar communities elsewhere, which are now beginning to emerge. At the Centre in London a committed group of about fifteen people of various backgrounds and professions live together and practice a new method of self-government as outlined in his book "Christ Yoga of Peace", which has an introduction by Bertrand Russell. Centre House also functions as a Growth Centre with daily activities in Yoga, Encounter, Meditation, and seminars and workshops centred in increasing awareness on all levels.

As an author, Christopher Hills is best known for his unique methods of Self-exploration and diagnosis of one's own level of consciousness as set out in his book "Nuclear Evolution" which involves new concepts of human personality that could have far reaching effects upon education and the emergent society in the next decades. Published in 1968, this book shows how Planetary Man can discover his unused potential and experience a new leap in consciousness, once he has fully explored and developed those seven Chakras from which he has operated for thousands of years. "Nuclear Evolution" is currently being used in universities as a textbook for Tantra Yoga.

In 1970 Christopher organized and presided over The World Conference on Scientific Yoga in New Delhi, which was attended by over 800 Yogis and Western scientists. The Conference made yogic history and as a result plans for a World Yoga University were formulated and a brochure issued, with the sponsorship of the majority of Yogis and scientists present.

"Conduct Your Own Awareness Session", co-authored by Robert Stone of Hawaii, was published by Signet Book Classics in 1971, and is available in paper back from any U.S. bookseller.

In 1973 a three-year course "Into Meditation Now" was written under direct inspiration. Plans were also made that year for the founding of the University of the Trees, in which this three-year course in mastery of Self is the major discipline. The course, which may be taken by serious students in any part of the world, features daily home study, and offers tape consultation service. The first step for these students who wish to discover themselves and to work toward enlightenment and self-mastery is to register with the University of the Trees, P.O. Box 644, Boulder Creek, Calif. 95006.

TREES

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.
A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;
A tree that looks at God all day,
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;
A tree that may in summer wear
A nest of robins in her hair;
Upon whose bosom snow has lain;
Who intimately lives with rain.
Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

UBIQUITY

Some things are so apparent they are never noticed. It is obvious that interest in the development of higher levels of consciousness is growing and spreading through all strata of American society. It is clear that this interest can take many forms. Yet most people divide these methods into two camps, the scientific and the spiritual, and proceed to ignore or to denigrate one or the other viewpoint. These people do not notice the obvious fact that these are but two different pathways to the same goal: increased knowledge of the dynamics of the Universe. Those who perceive the fallacy in the religion/science duality are beginning to lay down a network to combine these perspectives.

As a part of this effort a new organization, UBIQUITY, has been formed on the California State College, Sonoma, campus. Born in the fertile humanistic environment of this school, UBIQUITY is growing into a force for integration of the humanities and the sciences. Members are involved in various research projects studying such phenomena as pyramid energy, Kirlian photography, human electrostatic fields, homeopathy, and the Backster effect. The meaning of the findings of these projects will not be left in the laboratory; besides communicating the results in traditional ways, experiential workshops in certain topics will be led by active members.

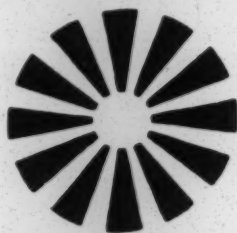

One of Ubquity's main concerns, appropriate to its existence on a college campus, is education. Members are currently working developing a curriculum leading to a bachelor's degree in physical studies. This program reflects the integrative philosophy of the organization and will provide a balance between the physical and biological sciences on the one hand and the humanities and social sciences on the other.

To prime the energy pump for this program, Ubquity is sponsoring Psychic Studies Year (PSY) for the academic year 1974-5. A number of classes in various departments will look at paranormal phenomena through the perspective of their particular discipline. The year will also be devoted to presenting lectures, films, symposia and other events to increase public awareness of current theories and practices in consciousness research (check the UNICOM Guide for notice of these activities). It is hoped that after experiencing Psychic Studies Year we will be closer to answering two major questions: (1) What is the nature of the relationship between the psyche and its environment and (2) How does one go about examining this question in a way that is meaningful and communicable, or, in other words, how can a study of consciousness benefit from the scientific method without losing the energy and significance of experiential and spiritual disciplines?

UBIQUITY offers three types of memberships, open to the public, for information, please contact the address below.

It is the objective of this organization to open up a new pathway to the goal of expanded awareness of the Cosmos, a pathway that does not exclude existing techniques but rather places them in a creative, synergetic relationship with one another. Brainwaves, Psychics, & Pyramids

Recent Research Reveals Some Very Interesting Discoveries.

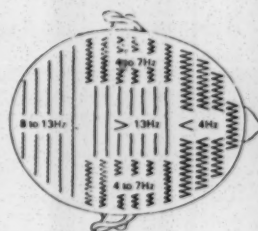

By Gary R. Plapp, Executive Director of HumaTech Industries.

What possible connection could brainwave activity have with psychics in trance states and meditators in pyramids? The people at HumaTech Industries Research and Development Facility, in San Jose, decided to find out! (HumaTech manufactures advanced biofeedback instrumentation.) Earlier This year, among others, a few psychics and healer volunteers had their EEG brainwaves monitored and recorded at HumaTech. Most mediators, during meditation, produced large amounts of Alpha Brainwaves along with relatively low Theta and Beta activity. (See Table 1) However, the psychics measured, while in trance state, displayed an unusually high level of Beta activity along with the Alpha. (See Graph 1)

TYPES OF BRAINWAVES AND ASSOCIATED MENTAL STATES.

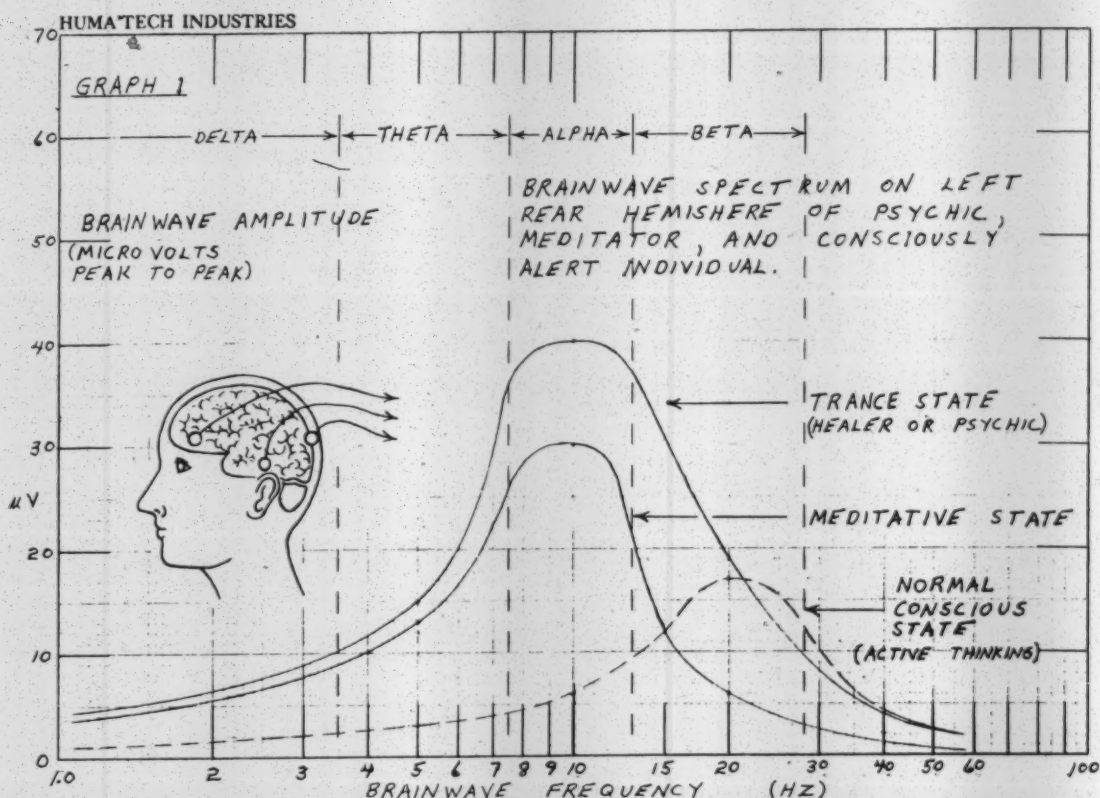

BRAINWAVE	FREQUENCY (Hertz)	AMPLITUDE (Microvolts)	MENTAL STATE
Delta	0.2- 3.5	10- 50	Deep dreamless sleep, trance state.
Theta	3.5- 7.5	50- 200	Drowsiness, hypnagogic imagery, creativity, receptivity.
Alpha	7.5- 13	10- 100	Tranquility, meditative state, diffused inner self awareness.
Beta	13- 28	10- 50	Focused awareness, anxiety, concentration, problem solving.

Characteristic output frequencies of EEG waves in various regions of the scalp (1 Hz = 1 cycle per second)

The same unusual combination of brainwaves was also found among various Psychics measured at some of the recent local Parapsychology Expositions and Symposiums. An unusually good example of this was demonstrated at the recent Psychic Symposium in Berkeley by Sheila Merle Johnson, a graduate of the Berkeley Psychic Institute. At the same symposium, an especially interesting and unexpected event occurred when trans-medium Donna Flegal's brainwave activity displayed a notable change when an outside spirit entity entered her body. This may possibly be due to personality and/or energy level differences between the hosting trance medium and the visiting entity.

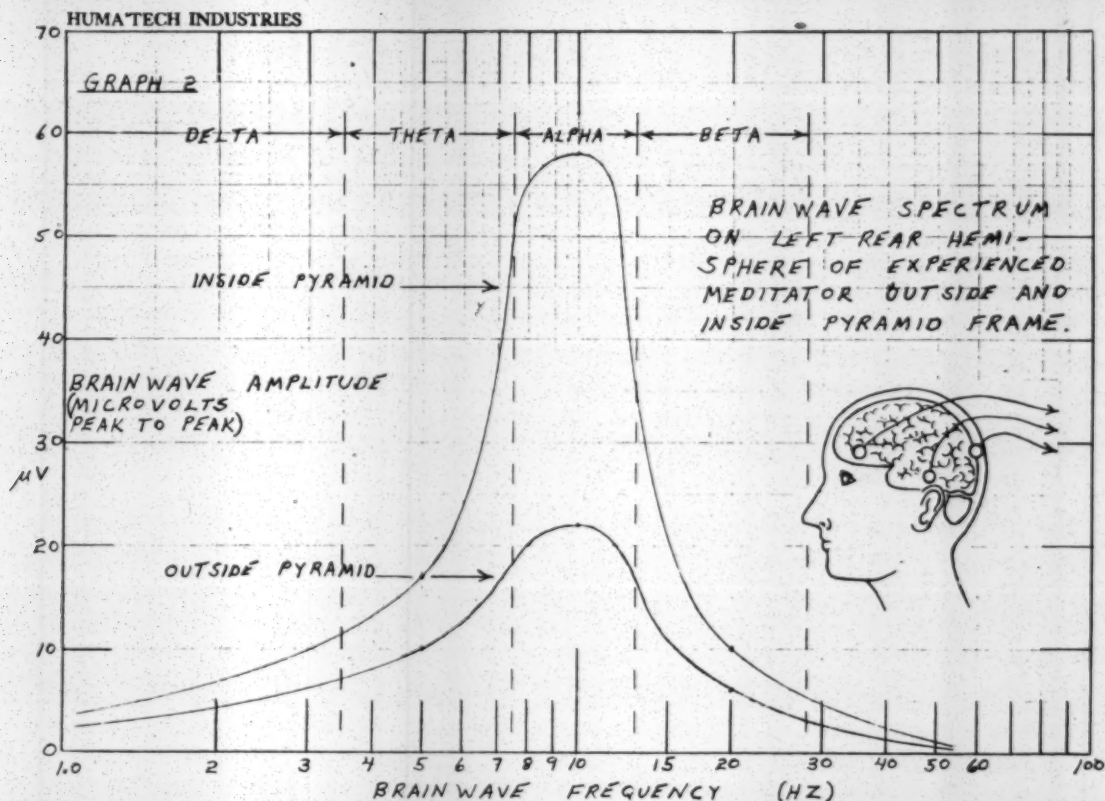

With all psychics, correspondingly high activity was found in the right hemisphere of the brain; the intuitive half for right handed persons. This could mean that psychics and other highly attuned individuals are actively using a larger portion of their brain than most people. Since it is generally agreed that everyone is psychic to some degree, brings to mind the future possibility of psychic development through the aid of special brainwave biofeedback instruments. Pyramids, known to most people, as merely part of the mysterious remains of a once magnificent ancient Egyptian civilization, were brought to the attention of local people, when George Cooper of Pyramid Products, in Fresno, joined publisher Bill Cox in studying small (four foot high) exact Pyramid replicas and unusual effects on things inside them. Aside from the earlier known effects of sharpening razor blades and preserving yogurt, it was found that the pyramid seems to be an accumulative amplifier of natural earth forces that interacts with and can be consciously experienced by most individuals inside. Some recorded comments by people are, "A tingling sensation", "A feeling of increased energy about parts of my body", "I became the pyramid", "A sense of time distortion", and "Amplification of predetermined states of mind".

At the recent S.J.S.U. Science and Spirit Exposition, the question was mutually raised with Bill Cox on what effects, if any, would a pyramid structure, (in this case, a four foot high aluminum pyramid frame), have on brainwave activity? Consequently, two subjects had their Theta, Alpha, and Beta brainwaves monitored and recorded both outside and inside the pyramid by an HT-30 Digital Display Brainwave Translator with a strip chart recorder. The first subject, while showing rhythmically waxing and waning Alpha activity outside, displayed similar activity inside with markedly increased high and low extremes. The second subject, with naturally high Theta activity outside the pyramid, showed an increase in both Theta and Alpha activity while inside the pyramid.

Further tests were conducted at the recent Berkeley Psychic Symposium, with an experienced meditator. (See Graph 2). The predominantly high Alpha brainwave activity, normally generated in a meditative state, nearly tripled in amplitude with increased regularity over the levels measured outside the pyramid.

These exciting preliminary findings prompted an intensive three day experimental investigation, conducted by George Cooper and myself at the Huma' Tech Research Facility. (See pictures). Six volunteers were tested between the ages 12 to 31 having various backgrounds and degrees of meditative experience, including psychic healer Cynthia Lester. Included in the extensive array of monitoring and recording instrumentation were two EEG Brainwave Translators and three multi-channel chart recorders. The results of these experiments confirmed our earlier findings; that the pyramid frame structure exhibits an amplifying effect on predetermined mental states; @concentration, meditation, self-awareness and altered states of consciousness. When the individuals effectively released themselves from any mental or emotional activity, there appeared to be a balancing or harmonizing effect experienced inside the pyramid. Healers and developing psychics could possibly be more effective using the additional energy afforded by the pyramid form.

EXPERIMENT INSTRUMENTATION

This precursory investigation seems to indicate that further research is warranted to establish the proper experimental controls. Only the first step has been taken towards a more complete understanding of the natural forces in which we live and are an integral part. Let us all physically and spiritually, greet the dawning of the new universal consciousness for present Humanity.

Recent Legal Developments in the Metaphysical Field

LEONARD WORTHINGTON

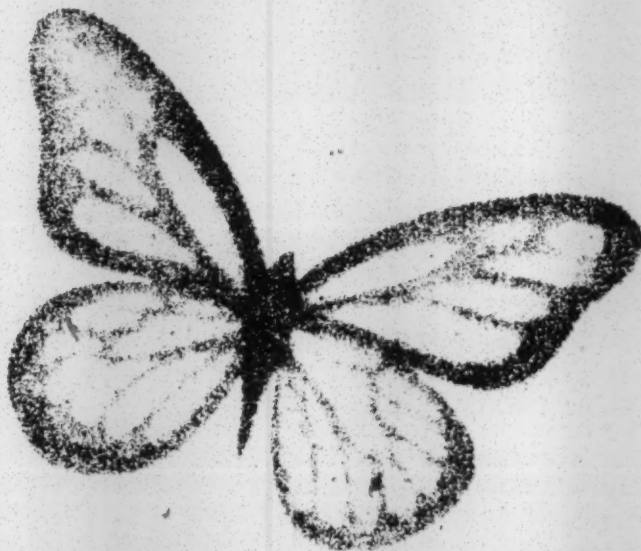

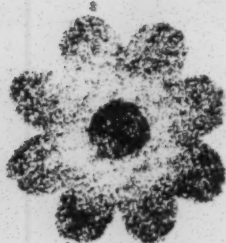

The lawsuit which was filed in the San Francisco Superior Court by a group of patients against the California Medical Board and others claiming that the persecution of acupuncturists was depriving them of their constitutional rights to be treated by qualified unlicensed acupuncturists of their own choosing to alleviate their ills, was dismissed by the judge, without allowing any presentation of evidence. The case is being appealed.

The second case filed on behalf of a score of licensed medical doctors claiming that it was an unconstitutional infringement of their rights as licensed physicians to prevent them from referring patients to an unlicensed acupuncturist, under penalty of losing their medical licenses, was also dismissed by the same judge without a factual hearing. This ruling is being appealed.

Petitions are available for presentation to members of the State legislature requesting their support in having the State preempt the field of metaphysics by prohibiting municipalities from enforcing or passing local ordinances which make the practice of astrology, prophecy, clairvoyance and other arts criminal acts. These ordinances are not only being ignored by many authorities who are using psychic's services for the public good, but the news media and the general populace have evidenced a sufficient interest in this field to indicate public demand for demonstration of these gifts from local interference.

Another Petition seeking Legislative action in adding another exemption to the Medical Practices Act to allow natural healers to practice their divine gifts under certain circumstances is also available for distribution and solicitation of signatures.

At this writing, AB 1841, which would place all acupuncturists under the control of the medical profession has been defeated. Ab 1691 which would allow the licensing of qualified, but presently unlicensed acupuncturists, is moving slowly forward with various amendments being proposed from time to time.

Comments

JOHN WHITE

The psychic research community is experiencing an ironic turn of events. The irony is this: now when public interest in the psychic, paranormal, occult, metaphysical and spiritual-mystical is at an all time high (Time and Newsweek recently had major articles on parapsychology), the funding for serious research is drying up.

Why this is so, heaven knows. Perhaps it's the New Age telling us to "get our act together" and stop thinking and behaving in old ways. Do what must be done despite support from establishment. Don't try to build a new house on the rotten foundation of the old. Begin to construct an alternate economy based on love, trust and good-will not greed, exploitation and mistrust.

Whatever the meaning of this situation, people who are considering careers or intensive participation in psychic research should be aware that jobs and research funding are scarce in this field. Look before you leap.

WORLD INVOCATION DAY—4 JUNE, 1974

An Invitation to Men and Women of Goodwill

This is a time of preparation not only for a new civilization and culture in a new world order, but also the coming of a new spiritual dispensation.

Humanity is not following an uncharted course. There is a divine Plan in the cosmos of which we are a part. At the end of an age human resources and established institutions seem inadequate to meet world needs and problems. At such a time the advent of a Teacher, a spiritual leader or Avatar, is anticipated and invoked by the masses of humanity in all parts of the world.

This massed invocation reaches the highest point each year during the period of three great spiritual Festivals: at the great western Festival of Easter; a month later at the eastern Festival of Wesak, the Festival of the Buddha; and climaxes a month after that at World Invocation Day, the Festival of Humanity, which has the keynotes of goodwill and right human relations.

World Invocation Day has three central features:

- First:* the use of the Great Invocation, a world prayer which expresses truths central to all major religions.
- Second:* the spiritual cooperation of men and women of goodwill of every faith joining in a united act of invocation to divinity.
- Third:* the distribution into human consciousness of the spiritual energies evoked during the Festivals of Easter and Wesak.

Today the reappearance of the world Teacher—the Christ—is expected by millions, not only by those of Christian faith but by those of every faith who expect the Avatar under other names — the Lord Maitreya, Krishna, Messiah, Imam Mahdi and the Bodhisattva.

Glamour and distortion surround this central fact of divine response to human need. This is inevitable but unimportant. The fact of transition into a new age is important. Preparation by men and women of goodwill is needed to introduce new values for living, new standards of behaviour, new attitudes of non-separateness and cooperation, leading to right human relations and a world at peace. The coming world Teacher will be mainly concerned, not with the result of past error and inadequacy but with the requirements of a new world order and with the reorganisation of the social structure.

Will you join in observing World Invocation Day through the united use of the Great Invocation, and will you join in making this day widely known?

THE GREAT INVOCATION

From the point of Light within the Mind of God
Let light stream forth into the minds of men.
Let Light descend on Earth.

From the point of Love within the Heart of God
Let love stream forth into the hearts of men.
May Christ return to Earth.

From the centre where the Will of God is known
Let purpose guide the little wills of men—
The purpose which the Masters know and serve.

From the centre which we call the race of men
Let the Plan of Love and Light work out.
And may it seal the door where evil dwells.

Let Light and Love and Power restore the Plan on Earth.

BEA KLEIN LYDECKER

MAY 15-25

BAY AREA

Have you ever looked at your pet and wondered what it was thinking? Sure you have, and so has every one else. To be able to talk to animals is one of the great universal fantasies. Of course, we can talk to animals in a crude fashion.

BEATRICE LYDECKER, however, can read the thoughts of animals with much more accuracy and sophistication. She can tell that an animal is sad, but also why it is sad, what past event, what physical pain, what acute worry is making it sad - or happy - or whatever. And she can do this with all animals, dogs, cats, horses, birds, mice, even reptiles.

For professional counseling for your pet, call for an appointment. Uni-Com Foundation, 415-493-2973

Please call between the hours of 11 AM and 4 PM.

BIORHYTHMS

- FLASH! A large airline company is now furnishing its San Francisco employees with their biorhythm information (thru their own computers) in a program to reduce on-the-job accidents.
- REASON:
1. That company checked over the previous 4 years and found that 65% of the accidents had occurred on employees' critical days.
 2. The company then applied biorhythm information to a control group and experienced a 50% reduction in accident rate.
- RESULT: That company is now in the process of supplying all its employees with their biorhythm information to use to reduce on-the-job accidents.

Avoidance of accidents is only one use of biorhythm information. More and more people are starting to make use of the varying conditions of their physical, emotional, and mental rhythms—and more and more people are turning to BIOCHARTS for convenient, accurate charts, accompanied by instructions on the basics of biorhythms and use of the charts.

Here is a book as complex and individual as you are. It's not light reading because it's your life, your astral biography, from the details of your inner feelings to your outermost ambitions.

Sun-Moon polarity, as the connection between conscious drives and unconscious feelings, is discussed at great length.

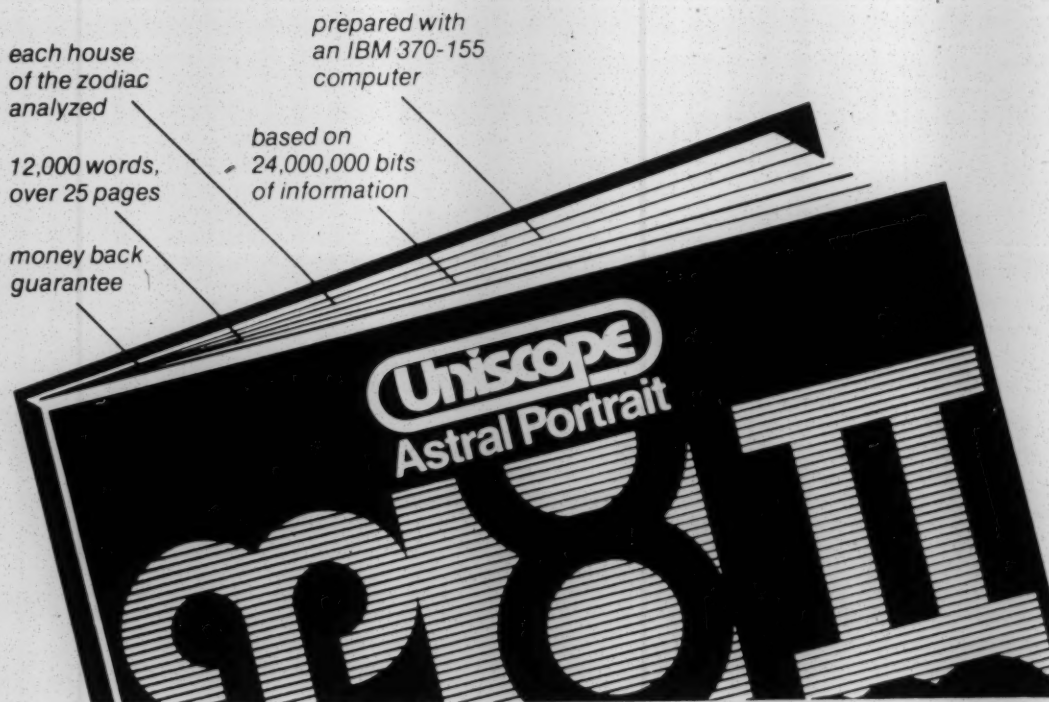

The ascending sign and its rulership position is interpreted as your personality, as your approach to life. Each house of the zodiac is described in terms of planets, rulerships and aspects.

This is not a vague report based on generalities. From your exact time, day, year and place of birth our IBM 370-155 sorts out 24,000,000 bits of astrological information. The result is a 12,000 word personal biography revealing secrets that even your closest friends would not dare talk about.

How is this possible? An astrologer does basically the same thing, but it takes longer and costs more. The computer is simply a memory bank. Only the information that applies to you and only you is drawn from the bank.

All this is yours for only $10. It's the best buy there is in computerized horoscopes. Plus a money back guarantee if your Astral Portrait isn't what you expected.

Think of it as a reference book, to be studied from time to time. We've got the best available, anywhere, at anytime... and at any price.

FROM THE DIRECTOR

With the growing interest in the psychic field it becomes increasingly important to draw a line between psychic ability and spiritual attainment. Some new age individuals appear to be confusing the two. Psychic ability is one thing. True spiritual or cosmic attainment is quite a different thing. From what I have seen in my travels. I feel the need for making a distinction between the two.

Let us put it this way, that psychic ability does not imply that the individual also has made spiritual progress.

We have seen many people who have been born with, or who have developed excellent psychic abilities of some kind, but who were not spiritual people. Some have considerable degrees of ESP. They are able to demonstrate such gifts at clairaudience, clairvoyance, mind reading, mediumship, or some other form of psychic ability, But at the same time they display many traits which would not come from a spiritual person.

I mention this because just about everywhere I go I find people straining themselves to "open their psychic centers" and develop psychic powers. Sometimes I wonder if those who encourage them really know what they are doing, or what they will be letting themselves in for. To become mentally or physically unbalanced is not a pretty sight, and we have seen those that it has happened to.

Why do not people seek the more Christlike qualities of love, understanding, wisdom, healing abilities, etc? Just because you open the psychic centers, does not mean you will automatically become spiritual!

We are not saying that you should not open your psychic centers at all, because this is a step in the right direction. But we feel that training in the spiritual aspects of life, of harmony to ones fellow man. The learning of what its all about, the study of the ancient mystery schools, should accompany the psychic push. Reach for the high teachings of the master, set a goal of cosmic freedom of of the Universe, and the psychic development that you so desire will come naturally and without danger to those about you.

Each and every one of you may have that that you are seeking if you but keep your goal and your ideals in the hand of the cosmic masters.

UNI-COM FOUNDATION

415-493-2973

California is alive with activity in parapsychology, metaphysics and other significant areas of human growth potential. The Uni-Com Foundation directly supports this activity by serving as its information hub.

The major service which the Foundation now provides is THE UNI-COM GUIDE, a monthly calendar of spiritual and personal awareness activities scheduled throughout California. This popular publication allows "new age" organizations to announce in advance the dates and contents of their meetings to a large and interested audience of individuals and other organizations. The cost of publishing UNI-COM GUIDE is supported by paid advertising and by modest subscription fees of $5/year, or $8 two years.

In the process of gathering information for UNI-COM GUIDE, the Foundation becomes aware of leaders who are available for services in counseling, speaking, teaching, research, seminars and retreats. Frequently this awareness, discreetly coupled to organizations needs for such talents, results in effective new relationships. Uni-Com Foundation does not solicit funds for this and other informal services but is supported by those who see the value of such work and voluntarily wish to become a part of it.

Uni-Com Foundation is a non-profit and non-denominational corporation which lovingly encourages the achievement of a loving society. Uni-Com offers two additional services of a mail order book catalogue and a small monthly pamphlet of articles by Metaphysical teachers.

LECTURE ANNOUNCEMENTS - ADVERTISING

Pyrameditation™...

JUST RELAX AND ENJOY IT!

Throughout the world people are expressing their unique reactions to meditation within a pyramid form; Pyrameditation, as we prefer to call it. Meditators confirm the form is equally effective without side panels. They report a more immediate sense of total relaxation in a pyramid, a deepening of their meditations, and an increase in self-awareness, among other exciting experiences. Why? Frankly, we don't know for sure. But we don't mind telling you that we are much more interested in results than in "reasons why?"

Properly constructed and oriented, a replica of the Great Pyramid of Giza appears to bring the energy vibration level of the meditator in harmony with creation. Others describe it as a "centering" effect. This seems to occur whether the subject is an experienced meditator or not, and no matter what discipline is followed, if any at all.

Description of individual experiences is as varied as the personalities of the persons involved:

"Brilliant flashes of white light, as if being drawn out of myself . . ."

Ben Dai
Oakland, Ca 94609

"Feeling of weightlessness and tingling."

Rose Marie Bell
Taylorville, Ill 62568

"Felt like a think tank. Went into alpha instantly!"

A. Eugene Frazier
Dallas, Texas 75219

"Felt like liquid electricity flowing down all over me."

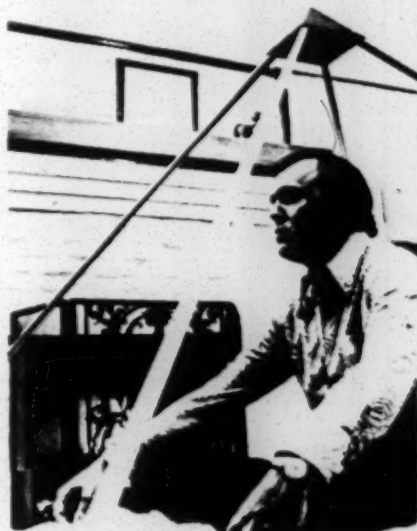

Mrs. George E. Kloppe
Phoenix, Arizona 85201

"Felt 20' tall, saw colors and symbols, saw visions, heard sounds, broke into a sweat . . ."

Rev. John W. Butts
Lancaster, Pennsylvania

"A feeling of everything coming together in great quiet — then no body!"

Emily Boxley
San Marino, Ca 91108

Pyrameditation, Inc. of Fresno, California, has developed a variable-size replica of the Great Pyramid, which allows the user to explore the phenomenon in the comfort of his or her home or environment, with a minimum of effort or technical knowledge.
